The Work Before Us—The Duty of the Hour.

"Our doubts are traitors,
And make us lose the good we oft might win,
By fearing to attempt."

These words may well come up before our minds in this eventful day, "big with the fate of" South Carolina. How true it is that "our doubts are traitors!" Many a victory has been lost—many an enterprise has miscarried—many a high hope has failed of its fruition, because of men's doubts. It is our doubts that often paralyze our energies and bring upon us disaster and defeat. And particularly does this sentiment now imperil the safety and the interests of South Carolina. The white men of South Carolina for reform, and the colored men in sympathy therewith, have this day in their hands the power to redeem the State. Let them come out from the mountains to the seaboard; let them throw aside their traitorous doubts; let them, standing upon their native soil, catch the spirit of hope and determination; let them rise up in the pride of their patriotism and in the majesty of their strength, and South Carolina will be won back and remitted to honest, faithful and considerate hands.

The reform organization of South Carolina have the power to save the State from the inroads that the ring of Ohio, Massachusetts and other plunderers are making upon the people's money and the people's hopes. Let us see to it that we use this power at the ballot-box to-day. The ballot is the weapon now. Let the ballot restore to us what the ballot lost us. Let the firm resolve of Carolinians win back that of which the apathy of Carolinians caused them to be deprived. Nor should the hardness of the times excuse any man for the non-performance of his duty. If business is dull—if the merchant, mechanic or laboring man fails to prosper as he ought—if cotton is low—below the cost of production, and the necessities of life continue high—if the hopes of planter and farmer have been blasted—in this state of things will be found the strongest argument for REFORM. If our people were rich and their purses plenteous—if our merchants were doing a thriving business—we might endure with equanimity for two years longer the robbery, the thieving and plunder of the two years past. But, as it is, let the business men—let the citizens generally—consider how they are to meet the tax-gatherers another year, and considering further the heartless, rapacious and irresponsible character of those who seek to retain the State for another term, let them see in their straitened circumstances the argument, the need, the demand for REFORM. And seeing the need, the demand for reform, let the appreciation of their duty come home to them in all its force and importance. That duty is to be discharged to-day. Let us hope that the entire vote of all Carolinians in sympathy with reform will this day be brought out. This effort, good and honest citizenship calls for at our hands. South Carolina must be saved. We do not intend to give the State up. Her bleeding wounds appeal to us. Her genial climate and her teeming soil invite us to her redemption. Let us read our duty in our hearts. By the memories of the past and the hopes of the future—by considerations affecting our interests, our safety and our honor—by all that is near and dear to us, let us spare no effort in behalf of the State. Let every voter cast his ballot this day for economy, retrenchment and reform. Vote radicalism down. (Whatever it may be in the North, here in South Carolina it is the bane of the commonwealth. It is associated with fraud, corruption and robbery—with high taxes and plundering officials—with a hard present and a worse future. "The coin is spurious, nail it down." Vote for Judge CARPENTER, and General BUTLER, and for Reform. Herein is the very centre of the infamous ring of radicals, native and foreign, raise boldly the standard of REFORM. Here at the headquarters of the plundering crew, fly high the flag of our principles and our hopes. And let public opinion hold him in scorn who shall this day meekly sacrifice his family, his name and mankind, and fail to do his duty at the polls. Let us bear in mind of what blood we are, and vote the plunderers down. On Trafalgar's great day, Lord Nelson ran out his flag, upon which was written, in bold characters, the words that have since become immortal: "England expects every man to do his duty." The suggestion we may well this day heed. For on this occasion, from one end of South Carolina to the other—from where the mountains rise in grandeur to where the waters sparkle in the sun-light, "SOUTH CAROLINA EXPECTS EVERY MAN TO DO HIS DUTY."

The State Fair.

The preparations for the grand gathering in Columbia on the occasion of the State Fair, which comes off on the 9th, 10th and 11th of November, are going on. Come one—come all, and swell the crowd. Fair week will be a grand one in Columbia. Visitors will be provided for.

Gen. Hampton's Charges Against Gov. Scott.

Gov. Scott having, in his organ, the Republican, denied the charges made by Gen. Hampton in his letter to General Butler, Messrs. Childs and Gibbs say: We were present at the interview held with Gov. Scott on the 27th day of October, 1868. We state that the account given by General Hampton, in his letter of the 8th, to General Butler, is accurate and correct.

L. D. CHILDS,
JAS. G. GIBBS.

The above was yesterday telegraphed to the Charleston Courier, News and Republican. General Hampton's word was enough, but this makes assurance doubly sure.

TAMPERING WITH VOTES.—The following paragraph is published for the information of the voters and others:

"Under the Act of July 14, 1870, any person voting twice, will be arrested by the United States Marshal, and the person so offending is liable to arrest, and not less than twelve months imprisonment. Any person who tampers with, or attempts to tamper with, or threatens to tamper with the ballot-boxes is liable to the same penalty."

ONLY $130,000,000 FOR CUBA.—We clip the following from the New York Sun:

Negotiations are in progress which, if successful, promise to result in the immediate independence of the Island of Cuba. A short time ago, Gen. Prim sent a Spanish gentleman to Washington to make a proposition involving the sale of Cuba by Spain. The agent was authorized to offer the island for $170,000,000, but while the negotiations were in progress the price was reduced 40,000,000, and Cuban independence can be purchased at $130,000,000.

The agent has received specific instructions to pledge the government of Spain to remove the Spanish soldiers from the island when the United States shall guarantee the payment of the purchase money. The subject was discussed at a Cabinet meeting on Monday. It is believed in Spanish circles that Gen. Prim's proposition will be accepted, but the decision of the Cabinet is not known.

AMERICAN DISTURBANCE IN HONOLULU.

A correspondent writing from Honolulu says Commander Truxton, of the sloop-of-war Jamestown, requested Consul Adamson to display his colors at half-mast over the consular office, out of respect to the late Queen Dowager, but Mr. Adamson declined to do so, on the ground that he had received no official notice of the Queen's death from the United States Minister resident. Commander Truxton immediately ordered Lieutenant Cochran, with a guard of marines, to put the flag at half-mast, by force if necessary, over the consular office. The order was obeyed, the Consul and Vice-Consul resisting. The Honolulu press are indignant, and pronounce the invasion of Hawaiian territory by an armed force of the United States a high-handed proceeding.

ADDRESS OF COL. J. P. THOMAS.—Thesplan Hall was crowded on Friday night, October 14, to hear Col. Thomas speak. Messrs. McCants and Stuart briefly addressed the audience by way of opening the meeting, and DuBose Eggleston, Esq., President of the Union Reform Club of Winnsboro, then introduced Col. J. P. Thomas, as one who did honor to South Carolina, and whom Carolinians delighted to honor. For one hour and a quarter Col. Thomas enlivened the attention of his audience by a very forcible and beautiful address, and praises of it are upon every lip. Whatever he says, too, ever carries double weight, owing to the sincerity and manly dignity of his character. From the beginning to the end of his address, he was encouraged by enthusiastic applause.

[Winnsboro News.]

A company of United States marines paraded the streets of Philadelphia on Tuesday last, the day of election, to encourage radical outrages and intimidate Democratic voters. The Mayor protested against such an interference on the part of the Federal Government with State elections, but no respect was paid to his protest. These soldiers took possession of one of the voting places under the false plea of preserving order, in plain violation of the constitution of the United States. Talk about the freedom of election! What a mockery! We have no longer a constitutional government. The hypocritical cry is: "Let us have peace"—while we have in truth nothing but a military despotism.

FRENCH WEST INDIES.—REVOLT AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.—Captain Podger, of the brig Black Swan, who sailed from St. Pierre, Martinique, on the 28th September, arrived at this port yesterday, reports a fearful state of excitement in that island. The news of the termination of the Napoleon dynasty had been received, which was followed by an insurrection against the government. Riot and bloodshed ensued, and a general massacre was feared.

An ill-humored English wife, abusing her husband on account of his mercenary disposition, told him that if she was dead, he would marry the devil's eldest daughter if he could get anything by it. "That's true," replied the husband, "but the worst of it is, in England one can't marry two sisters."

PARTY TYRANNY.—In the pending Congressional canvass in Virginia the Radicals are applying the thumb-screw to the office-holders. Every Radical occupant of every party Federal office is made to disgorge a part of his earnings for the benefit of the "party of great moral ideas." On Saturday last a demand for a contribution of three dollars was made upon every workman in the navy yard at Portsmouth to aid in the election of a carpet-bag Congressman from that district.

The Norfolk Virginian says the quarter-men and master workmen were assessed higher. The mechanics must pay up the three dollars, or not being considered truly loyal, will be discharged. These men, whether Radical or otherwise, are obliged, to save their bread and butter, to yield to all such exactions. Suppose the people of that district were to make a similar requisition upon all the negroes in their employ, what yells we should hear from the Radical camp.

COAL AND SCALES.—The coal traffic over the Lehigh Valley Railroad, of Pennsylvania, is enormous. A slight idea can be formed from the fact that 40,000 tons of coal have been weighed each week, for three years, upon a single track scale built by Messrs. E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., making a total of 6,240,000 tons. This does not include that weighed upon the dozen or more other scales of their make upon the said road. Messrs. Fairbanks are now manufacturing nearly 1,000 scales each week, of their various modifications, and are much behind their orders.

A young man in a Western city is in the habit of placing billet-doux in the gate-post in front of a young lady's house, evenings, and his rival, watching from across the street, bears them off and reads them. The neighbors think there'll be a schuetzenfest when those two fellows meet.

A good lesson to teachers is conveyed by the following simple anecdote: "How is it, my dear," inquired a school mistress of a little girl; "how is it that you do not understand this simple thing?" "I do not know, indeed," she answered, with a perplexed look, "but I sometimes think I've so many things to learn that I have no time to understand."

Missouri has furnished the latest definition of "disloyalty." It consists in an effort to confer on white men equal political privileges with negroes. Carl Schurz and Gratz Brown are denounced by the Radicals as traitors for desiring that this shall be done, and Grant approves.

During the war the highest tax point reached was $329,000,000. Since peace was announced taxes have touched $569,000,000, and for the present year are $80,000,000 higher than ever during the war. If the people desire a reduction of taxes, they must defeat the Radical candidates for Congress.

Two persons, each over eighty, who had been betrothed in early life, were recently united in wedlock at Galesburg, Ill. In the interval between the separation and re-union, each had been twice married.

We hasten to give our lady readers the following important information: "Sashes and panier over-skirts are now entirely obsolete, and the skirts hang plain in the back, are short in front, and are now looped at the sides."

Dickens says: "I have known vast quantities of nonsense talked about bad men not looking you in the face. Don't trust that conventional idea. Dishonesty will stare out of countenance any day in the week, if there is anything to be got by it."

A man, claiming to be from Columbia, was robbed of two watches in Augusta, on the night of the 17th, during a sleep brought on by overdoes of benzine. The watches were recovered.

A young woman of Harvard, Mass., finding that her husband had another wife living, sought out the deserted one, brought her and her two children to Boston, where they are all four now living happily together.

Matilda Heron was so desirous of separation from her husband, Shoopel, that she gave him all the property she had, even drawing a diamond ring from her finger and throwing it into the bargain.

A negro who was tried in Tunica County, Mississippi, for bog stealing and acquitted, was immediately put on the jury to try and acquit one of the negro jurors charged with horse stealing.

Jersey City has a United Temperance Brass Band, but, sad to relate, all its members take a horn occasionally, except the drummer.

Rev. N. C. Thompson, a Methodist preacher of Alabama, hung himself with his stirrup leathers.

The best thing to give to the poor—give them employment.

A child, while walking through an art gallery with her mother, was attracted by a statue of Minerva. "Who is that?" said she. "My child, that is Minerva, the goddess of wisdom." "Why didn't they make her husband too?" "Because she had none, my child." "That was because she was wise, wasn't it, mamma?" was the artless reply.

Notice.

THE following is published for the information of Election Managers and Electors: The Managers are authorized to appoint a Clerk to assist them in whatever duties may be required of them, who shall take the following oath, to be administered by the Chairman of the Board of Managers: I do solemnly swear, (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I am duly qualified, according to the Constitution of the United States and of this State, to exercise the duties of the office to which I have been appointed, and that I will faithfully discharge, to the best of my abilities, the duties thereof; that I recognize the supremacy of the Constitution and laws of the United States over the Constitution and laws of any State; and that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of South Carolina, as ratified by the people on the 16th day of April, 1868: So HELP ME GOD.

One of the Managers shall administer to each person offering to vote, (or where it is necessary several may be sworn at one time,) the following oath: Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that you are duly qualified to vote at this election, according to the Constitution of this State, and that you have not voted during this election: So HELP ME GOD?

The following is the constitutional qualification referred to: Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, without distinction of race or color or former condition, who shall have been a resident of the State for one year, and in the County of which he offers to vote for sixty days next preceding any general election, shall be entitled to vote: Provided, That no person while kept in any almshouse or asylum, or of unsound mind, or confined in any public prison, shall be allowed to vote.

The poll shall be open at such voting places as shall be designated, at 6 o'clock in the forenoon, and close at 6 o'clock in the afternoon of the day of election, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

The State Constables and other peace officers are hereby required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and they shall prevent all interference with the managers, and see that there is no interruption of good order.

Every person who shall vote at any general election, who is not entitled to vote, and every person who shall, by force, intimidation, deception, fraud, bribery or undue influence, obtain, procure or control the vote of any elector, or to cast for any candidate or men, other than is intended or desired by such elector, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in jail not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or both, within the discretion of the court.

The ballot must be so folded as to conceal the contents and inserted in the ballot-box by the person voting, and no other. At the close of the election and within three days after the day thereof, the Chairman of the Board of Managers, or one of them, who may be designated by the Board, shall deliver to the Commissioners of Elections the poll lists and the boxes containing the ballots.

THE CLOSING OF PLACES OF BUSINESS.—In Charleston nearly every store and place of business will be closed to-day. It has been suggested that Columbia do likewise. We hope our merchants will give their clerks and our workshops their employees every opportunity to vote and get votes. Give one day to South Carolina!

REFORM MEETING AT RIDGEWAY.—On Saturday last, a reform meeting took place at Ridgeway, in Fairfield. The radical leaguers of Ridgeway attended, under their Mr. Smart. Mr. B. R. Stuart, of the Winnsboro News, made a thoughtful and effective address. Mr. Smart spoke in behalf of his cause, and agreeably to the appointment made, Col. Thomas spoke in behalf of reform.

THE SURVIVORS' ASSOCIATION.—ADDRESS OF GENERAL PRESTON.—We desire to direct special attention to the notice which appeared in our columns on yesterday on this subject, and to ask our cotemporaries to copy it. The SURVIVORS' ASSOCIATION, in its objects, must address itself to many hearts in the South. It will be seen that the Association meets here during fair week, and that General John S. Preston will deliver an address. On this occasion we have every reason to anticipate that General Preston will give a fine illustration of his great oratorical powers.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.—REFORM CLUB WARDS 3 AND 4.—A large, enthusiastic and most intelligent meeting of our fellow-citizens crowded Palmetto Hall last evening. The Chairman, Colonel J. P. Thomas, reviewed the Reform movement, and urged Wards 3 and 4 to do their whole duty. He congratulated the Club upon the spirit with which they had met and worked together. Colonel McMaster and Maj. Seibels followed in addresses that excited applause. Important committees were appointed. The business for to-day was fixed. The thanks of the Club were tendered to the President and Secretary, Mr. J. E. Lyles.

Upon motion, the Club adjourned, subject to the call of the President. With cheers the members separated.

H. C. Mosely, Esq., Deputy United States Marshal, has been sent to Columbia, for the purpose of looking after the election to-day, and seeing that it is fairly conducted. He has arranged for the appointment of twenty special constables—ten from each party—who will attend at the different polls and preserve order. Each of the appointees will wear a suitable badge, which has been provided. The following is a list of the special constables:

CONSERVATIVES.—Thomas W. Berry, Mike Grinstead, John Glaze, C. F. Cooper, Robert I. Neal, E. Ehrlich, J. M. Morris, —Dinkins, C. Hussing, Samuel Green.

REPUBLICANS.—Wm. Young, Wm. Allen, P. Good, W. G. Embleton, W. Minton, Wm. McMaben, Mander Anderson, Lewis Phillips, Simon Wilson, P. Nowell.

PHENIXIANA.—The price of single copies of the PHENIX is five cents. If carriers charge more it is simply a swindle. They can be obtained at that price at the office.

Mayor Alexander has appointed twenty-five special policemen for duty to-day. They will be designated by a blue badge.

We are requested to call attention to an omission, corrected, in an advertisement to the dental profession, to-day.

The Independent Fire Company had their regular fall parade, yesterday. By-the-way, our citizens are subscribing liberally, and in a few weeks we may expect to hear the whistle of the Independent steam fire engine. So mote it be.

Messrs. Bryan & McCarter have furnished us a copy of "Tom Brown at Oxford," by the author of "Tom Brown's School Days." It is a new edition—neatly illustrated—of a work which has been very popular for several years. It is really a continuation of the "School Days." The price of the book is seventy-five cents—for which amount the purchaser can reasonably calculate to receive several dollars' worth of entertainment. Harper & Brothers, New York, are the publishers.

Mr. Shiver advertises another new lot of goods to-day. He keeps his shelves well filled, notwithstanding the heavy business he constantly does.

The Southern Presbyterian Review, for October, has been received. It is published by an association of ministers in Columbia, S. C.

A great many dead fish are floating ashore on the coast of New Jersey, and the people there are unable to account for it. They seem to have forgotten that hundreds of radical politicians washed themselves in the surf at Long Branch last summer.

Victor Emmanuel to the Pope: Let me in, or I shall do Vat-i-can to get in.

AN EXAMPLE TO THE YOUNG.—Among the gentlemen who volunteered for duty in behalf of Reform in Wards 3 and 4, were those well-known citizens, Mr. John A. Crawford, Dr. J. W. Parker, Col. J. T. Sims, and Dr. Thomas J. Rawls. Thus, AGE speaks to YOUTH.

POST OFFICE HOURS.—Northern mail opens 4.30 P. M.; closes 11 A. M.

Charleston and Greenville, open 4.30 P. M.; close 5.30 A. M.

Western, opens 12.30 P. M.; closes 2.45 P. M.

Charleston, evening, opens 8 A. M.; closes 6 P. M.

Office open Sundays from half-past 4 o'clock to half-past 5.

RADICAL TACTICS.—It is said at this time of our writing that the radicals have arranged with ten speakers to consume all this Tuesday night in speaking, with the view of marching their dupes to the polls in the morning. If these extraordinary means are resorted to, their cause must be in a bad way. We hope that Reformers will go to bed early, sleep soundly, and do their duty manfully in the morning. We pity those who expect to listen to those ten speeches. Well may the colored men exclaim: "Save us from our friends."

HOTEL ARRIVALS, October 18.—Columbia Hotel.—N. A. Smith, New York; C. G. Memminger, Charleston; W. H. Posoy, Spartanburg; Mr. Jones, Greenville; D. J. Williams, Abbeville; H. C. A BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—It may be truthfully said that the greatest of all blessings is health, for without it the joys vouchsafed are turned to sorrows. To all health is essential for life's enjoyment and pursuits, to the young and old, to the rich and poor. Are you in search of wealth? Health is necessary. Do you desire office and worldly honors? Of what avail would these be without health? The beauties of spring, the song of birds, the deep blue sky, the rolling ocean, all have a poetic fascination which charms only the healthy in mind and body; but to the sick what are these but mockeries. The body diseased, the mind sickly or with the saddest of thoughts. Oh, that I may live to appreciate the blessings of health. This rich boon is within the reach of all. The remedy at hand in HENRICH'S QUEEN'S DELIGHT, the health panacea. Now is the time to try it. A 2
